President's Report

Happy new Year Rockers

The February President's report is always a hard one to write as I drag from the recesses of my brain the events of December and January.

Early December saw a great turnout of rockers for the Santa Parade. It is always such a good feeling to see people's faces smiling and seeing them bop along to the music as we travel down George Street. Thanks to all those who supported the club, and special thanks to Anita and Henare for the music, and to Geoff for organising the truck and driver. Special thanks to Allan Dippie for driving the truck.

The Christmas dance saw 100 rockers attend and a great night was had by all. We welcomed back Free 'n' Easy, who provided the music after a bit of an absence due to Covid. The first ever silent auction made the club $250. Santa and his reindeer made an appearance thanks to Geoff and Kimberley, and the night ended with a rendition of Auld Lang Syne which is appreciated by all.

The following awards were presented (I hope I have remembered right):

Best Dressed Christmas Table – Yours truly, along with Gordon Cameron and Robyn Tweedie

Best Dressed Couple – Mike and Gill Hormann

Best Dressed Male – Geoff Henry

Best Dressed Female – Helen Manly

Most Improved Dancers – Peter McDonald and Ruth Pelet

Most Valued Rockers – Norman Evans and Sharon Chappelow

January saw a reasonable crowd come along to our gold coin dance to start the year off and there was the usual catching up with everyone. Thanks to Jude for the music and the dance floor was full for much of the night.

The South Island Competitions to be held on 18 February, entries closed on Friday and it is looking like it will be a good day. Competition to start at midday, doors open 11 am. Dance to follow, doors open at 7.30 pm, music by Henare, bring a plate supper.

The 40th birthday celebration preparations continue to go well and we are interested to find out if people are keen on memorabilia such as drink bottles with a logo, t-shirts, fridge magnets, key rings pens... We will have some samples this month for people to have a look and comment on.

We are hoping to promote the club and the celebrations by placing an article in the community paper, we would be keen to know if anyone is interested in being a sponsor by placing an ad or making a donation. Please speak to me if you are able to help with this.

Club nights have resumed on Tuesdays and dance lessons will be starting on Monday, 13 February.

Looking forward to seeing you all, take care and stay cool in this amazing weather.
